

Competency		Professionalism
Subdomain		Accountability
Learning Objective		Demonstrates responsibility to oneself, patients, colleagues, the profession, and society*
Year I	Mid	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Defines responsibilities in team participation - Lists student wellness resources - Demonstrates accountability in learning and accountability for achieving the UCDSOM competencies
	End	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Demonstrates accountability to others in the learning environment - Describes components of maintaining wellness and recognizes when wellness is compromised
Year II	Mid	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Explains the intersection of personal wellness and relationships with the larger community and its impact on ability to carry out commitments to profession and society
	End	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Defines professional roles and responsibilities to society, including equitable resource use and understanding of public health obligations - Develops internal resources in maintaining wellness
Year III	Mid	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Communicates understanding that personal wellness and commitment to patients and colleagues are sometimes in conflict - Utilizes colleagues and is available to others for consultation regarding professional commitments
	End	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Demonstrates accountability to patient care by responsible participation in appropriate patient care activities
Year IV	Mid	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Manages threats to personal wellness, recognizes threats to colleague wellness, and knows referral resources
	End	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Manages threats to maintaining a professional relationship with patients - Explains equitable resource use, conflict of interest, and laws related to public health obligations