Philosophy of Care:

I have seen the NICU through many perspectives, first as a junior volunteer, then as a sister, a mother, an RN, and eventually as a Nurse Practitioner. My experiences have given me a close connection to how vital it is that the family is to the care team. I love to teach parents about their little ones and how we, as a team, can strive for the best long-term outcomes that are in line with the family's goals.
